Duties of the City of Montebello Commissioners:

The Civil Service Commission*, Among other duties, advises the City Council on all matters pertaining to personnel administration; when requested by the City Council holds hearings and makes recommendations on any matters of personnel administration within the limits of such request; hears appeals submitted by any person in the classified service as set forth in the Montebello Municipal Code, and other such duties as directed by the City Council.

The Planning Commission* shall perform the duties and shall have all the rights, powers and privileges specified and provided for in this Code or by state law. In addition, the Planning Commission shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be directed by the City Council. For state law as to planning commissions, refer to California Government Code Section 65150. As to local planning generally, refer to California Government Code Section 65100 et seq. and Title 17 of this Code.

The Traffic and Safety Commission* shall perform such duties as may be provided for in this code or other applicable law. In addition, the Commission shall perform such functions as may be specifically delegated to it or directed by the City Council. The Commission considers matters that relate to traffic, parking, signage and the safety of motorists and pedestrians

Youth and Education Commission*- Shall advise the City Council on matters relating specifically to youth. This includes activities oriented toward education, recreational and civic programs, and those activities that pertain to life issues, thus addressing the educational and leisure needs, creating awareness and improving quality of life for our youth. The duties of the Commission shall also include the identification and publication of educational opportunities for youth and the development of youth leadership. In addition, the Commission shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be directed by the City Council.

All members of the Youth Commission shall be between the ages of 16 and 19 years of age at the time of appointment, but may not serve beyond 22 years of age. In order to qualify for appointment, a youth must be in, and remain in good academic standing with their respective schools as defined by each school, and/or submit two letters of recommendation.

Golf Course Commission – To advise the City Council and the Municipal Services Department on matter relating to the use, maintenance, improvement, promotion and operating the municipal golf course, as well to agreements involving or relating to the municipal golf course.

Culture and Recreation Commission*- Shall advise the City Council on matters relating to parks, and recreation, human services and the fostering and stimulation of the general arts and cultural development of the City of Montebello.

- * Compensated $50 per meeting attended.
